

CUMBERLAND GAP NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK

Embroidered Patch

In 1775, Daniel Boone blazed a trail that led west through the Cumberland Gap. By 1810 up to 300,000 pioneers had followed his trail into Kentucky in search of fertile land, abundant game, and the American dream.

$5.95

Designed & Finished in the USA

hogeve.com